

GLENDORA COMMUNITY COORDINATING COUNCIL

Humanitarian Service Award

The Glendora Community Coordinating Council established a Humanitarian Service Award to focus public attention on the outstanding humanitarian efforts and volunteer services of adults that would probably go unrecognized. An individual or group may be considered for this award, which may be given monthly, September through May. In June, the Eugene Beckwith Award is presented to an individual, individuals or a group for outstanding volunteerism. It is given in honor and recognition of Mr. Beckwith's contributions to Glendora. To receive this award, nominee(s) or group must meet the following criteria:

- The individual(s) or group must have given specific, outstanding service to humanity that would not otherwise be widely recognized. Criteria may include, but is not limited to, the following: Extraordinary volunteer efforts, unusual actions to assist another person(s), acts of heroism or acts of a humane nature.
  - If nominee is a resident, the service may have been provided outside the Glendora community.
  - If the nominee is not a resident of Glendora, the service must have benefited the community of Glendora.
- Nominations for the award may be submitted by a community organization, church or individual.

The recipient will be a guest of the Coordinating Council at the general luncheon meeting. Other guests are welcome, provided their reservations have been made with the Humanitarian Service Award Board Member at least one week prior to the meeting. Cost of the luncheon is $16.00 per person. The Coordinating Council will release to the local press information about the award recipient.
